

Leave the Amusement Park Behind; Discover a Thrilling Caribbean Family Vacation

With more and more families discovering the thrill and connection of travel, many are searching for adventurous vacations offering more than amusement rides and cartoon characters.

Coral Gables, FL (PRWEB) August 24, 2006 -- Parents today are interested in giving their children unique experiences when they travel. While amusement park vacations remain popular, many enlightened parents are looking to put a different spin on the traditional family vacation.

“When our twins turned seven, we decided it was finally time to embark on a family vacation of a lifetime. However, we didn’t want to spend our time traipsing around an amusement park, waiting in long lineups and eating fast food,” states Tanya Jensen, 36 from Nebraska.

She continues: “We want a real travel experience that allows us to enjoy being together, but provides opportunities for our children to learn and experience new things. Our travel agent suggested a Caribbean family vacation. After doing some of our own research, we discovered that Harbour Village Beach Resort in Bonaire offers a Caribbean family vacation that fulfills all our dreams!”

Harbour Village Beach Club is proud of their Caribbean family vacation programs. Their unique partnership with Sea & Discover, Bonaire’s Marine Education Center, enables children to experience and learn first hand from a leading marine biologist. Classroom and water sessions combine to teach children about the marine environment and ecology of Bonaire in a safe and fun atmosphere.

“Harbour Village Beach Club is proud of our adventure programs that are just perfect for a family looking for a thrilling Caribbean family vacation. Our suite of programs offers complete flexibility for our guests. Children can partake in some programs on their own, others are for families as a whole, and we even offer programs geared for adults to learn more about marine life,” Jessica Gonzalez, Harbour Village Beach Club comments.

For those looking for an exciting Caribbean family vacation as an alternative to amusement parks, Harbour Village heeds that call. Their programs include Family Fun Snorkel, Discovery Dive, Fish ID and Mangrove Snorkel for children ages 7 and up.
