

Award Winning Harbour Village Beach Club in the Dutch Caribbean Continues to be a Traveler's Best Kept Secret

Vacationers who discover Bonaire's Leading Hotel, The Harbour Village Beach Club, know they will returning to experience the luxury and beauty of this award winning resort.

Miami, FL (PRWeb) January 9, 2007 -- The Harbour Village Beach Club was recently named "Bonaire's Leading Hotel" for the second year straight at the World Travel Awards. Travel professionals from around the globe cast their votes selecting winners in a multitude of categories.

Not only are industry professionals singing the praises of this lovely Bonaire hotel, travelers from all walks of life are posting their commendations and enthusiastic approvals on blog sites, once they return from a stay.

One recent guest posted her thoughts on the Harbour Village past guest blog. "Harbour Village is our best kept secret. We have the best time there! There is no easier diving anywhere; the water is calm, warm and full of life. The room is top of the line and immaculate. The people who are associated with the resort are the best! The dive shop is the absolute best as well, but we prefer to keep this our secret. We travel a lot and dive a lot - this is our favorite place to dive and to stay."

Management at the hotel is thrilled when past guests take the time to post their thoughts on the website's blog and on other travel websites such as Trip Advisor. "We really strive to be the leading hotel in Bonaire and it is gratifying when guests take the time to write about their stay or when industry professionals present us with awards. It means that our hard work and dedication to the resort is worth it," comments Oscar Haack, general manager of Harbour Village Beach Club. "Every person who visits Bonaire and stays at our resort is treated like our special guest. Our staff is trained to make our guests feel welcome and to cater to their needs. We want everyone to leave the resort rested, relaxed and happy," Haack concludes.

From the blog postings circulating the Internet, it appears that the Harbour Village Beach Club is indeed meeting their goals. Consider this London guest's thoughts posted on Trip Advisor, "The staff was extremely polite and helpful at all times and the hotel has its own dive shop and dive boat, which is one of the best on Bonaire. There are three scheduled boat trips per days, any of which are available to guests. The diving is outstanding -- as it is in all of Bonaire and the hotel has its own wreck sunk only 50m off the beach in 17m of water and a coral reef just across the harbour entrance. This is a luxury hotel and if you are looking for the best on Bonaire, I am told by the locals that this is it and I certainly wouldn't argue."

This season Harbour Village Beach Club announces the opening of a steakhouse, the Patagonia Restaurant, at the lighthouse location of Harbour Village Marina. Guests can now enjoy marina side dining available al fresco, overlooking the breathtaking marina or in air-conditioned comfort.
