

Harbour Village Beach Club On The Island Of Bonaire Is Definitely Fit For Royalty

Holland's Queen Beatrix visited the beautiful island of Bonaire from November 8th to 10th. As always, she chose to stay at the Bonaire resort fit for royalty, the award winning Harbour Village Beach Club.

Miami, FL (PRWeb) November 21, 2006 -- Holland's Queen Beatrix visited the beautiful island of Bonaire from November 8th to 10th. As always, she chose to stay at the Bonaire resort fit for royalty, the award winning Harbour Village Beach Club.

The Harbour Village Beach Club has the honorable distinction of being the only resort on the island of Bonaire repeatedly chosen as the accommodation of choice for Holland's Queen Beatrix.

As part of her royal duties, Queen Beatrix of the Netherlands visits the island regularly. The Queen's latest visit to the region followed a long awaited agreement by the Dutch government and the Netherlands Antilles to grant autonomy to the Caribbean territories of Curacao and St. Maarten, and giving smaller islands in the group the status of Dutch municipalities. The Netherlands Antilles - which include the www.harbourvillage.com/html04/vacationpackages.html [Island of Bonaire] - has been a self governing territory since 1954, deferring only the issues of foreign policy and defense to the Netherlands.

Despite the changes in some of the island's status, one thing never changes; Queen Beatrix consistently chooses to stay in the refined luxury of the Harbour Village Beach Club whenever she visits Bonaire.

"We are always so thrilled when the Queen visits Bonaire and stays at our resort," claims Oscar Haack, General Manager at www.harbourvillage.com/html04/vacationpackages.html [Harbour Village Beach Club].

He continues: "The Queen's favorite room is a second floor, corner two bedroom suite overlooking the sea and one of Bonaire's best beaches. This suite has a truly royal view and is the perfect location for enjoying one of our famed Caribbean sunsets."

Other members of the Royal Family also choose The Harbour Village Beach Club for its world class amenities, first rate service and luxurious surroundings.

Beyond the Royal Family, vacationers of all walks of life are discovering for themselves what makes the Harbour Village Beach Club fit for royalty.

"We visited Bonaire during our last vacation and chose to stay at the Harbour Village Beach Club after reading so many favorable reviews," states Marni Johnson from Houston Texas.

"It was without a doubt, the most beautifully appointed accommodations and best selection of amenities that we've ever experienced while on vacation. I wasn't at all surprised when I learned that the resort is Queen Beatrix's choice when she visits Bonaire," Johnson concludes.

Why not discover for yourself why the Harbour Village Beach Club is the Queen's choice and why it has received so many travel awards and accolades.
