Miami, FL (PRWeb) February 15, 2007 -- The Harbour Village Beach Club on the spectacular island of Bonaire was recently named a Fodor's Choice for 2006. This honor comes on top of many other awards and commendations recognizing the resort as a premier Caribbean vacation destination.

In an excerpt from the review, Fodor's states "Each year, our writers around the world select an exclusive list of restaurants, hotels and attractions in their area to represent the best places to visit when traveling to the region. Harbour Village has been chosen as one of these top establishments and so given the Fodor's choice distinction."

"We're thrilled to be given the distinction of a Fodor's Choice for 2006," comments Oscar Haack, General Manager of Harbour Village Beach Club. "We really do strive to be the best resort in the Caribbean and are pleased when our efforts are recognized. We train our staff to make our guests feel special and to meet their every need. We want all our guests leaving the resort feeling rested and rejuvenated and anxious to return," Haack concludes.

Travel specialists like Fodor's recognize Harbour Village Beach Club as a top Caribbean vacation destination for several reasons, such as their luxurious accommodations, world class resort amenities, sumptuous dining and personalized customer service.

To celebrate this achievement and to give guests further incentive to visit the resort, Harbour Village just announced a new package offering a free night plus $100 resort credit when staying eight nights in a suite.

This special offer is valid from April 12 through December 21, 2007, which should entice vacationers to book their Spring Break at this notable Caribbean vacation destination. In addition to offering special packages, the resort aims to keep past guests and potential future guests informed as to special events and developments at the resort. As part of this mandate, Harbour Village just released an e-newsletter as well as a blog where past guests can post comments about their experiences.
