

Getting To The Island Of Bonaire Just Got Easier

One of the biggest airlines just announced it is expanding service to the Dutch Caribbean Island of Bonaire making it even easier for vacationers to indulge in a Caribbean dive vacation.

Miami, FL (PRWeb) November 13, 2007 -- Delta Air Lines, the world's second largest airline, just announced the launch of a weekly nonstop flight from its Atlanta hub to and from Bonaire beginning February 9, 2008.

This new flight is welcome news for visitors planning a Caribbean dive vacation to Bonaire. In February 2008 Delta Air Lines flight #371 will depart Hartsfield Jackson Atlanta International Airport Saturdays at 10:00 am, arriving into Bonaire's Flamingo International Airport at 3:10 pm. The return flight #371 will depart Bonaire on Saturdays at 4:15pm, arriving into Atlanta at 7:55 pm. Travelers on this new flight will enjoy Delta's 150 seat, Boeing 737-800 with 16 first class seats and 134 economy seats.

Located eighty-six miles off the coast of Aruba and safely outside the hurricane belt, Bonaire is a prime Caribbean dive vacation destination for water adventurers and those wanting an island paradise escape. "We traveled to Bonaire last year, and my husband and I can't wait to visit again. We were both thrilled by Delta's recent announcement because it makes visiting our favorite Caribbean island even easier," exclaims Catherine Smythe from Conley, Georgia.

The only resort on Bonaire who boasts membership in Small Luxury Hotels of the World is the Harbour Village Beach Club and they welcome the additional service to their beautiful island. Offering visitors a plethora of amenities and activities, the resort also features luxurious beachfront suites, fine dining, a full service dive center, marina, tennis courts, fitness center and spa.

With the recent addition of new room amenities like iPod docking stations, flat screen TVs, luxury foam mattress toppers, and Cocomango signature bath amenities, stays at Harbour Village are even more enjoyable.

Vacationers interested in booking a Caribbean dive vacation using the new Bonaire flight service should visit the Delta website and then log onto the Harbour Village Beach Club website to find booking information for their stay in the lap of luxury!
