

Honeymooners Take the Plunge after Diving into Marriage

Honeymooners are looking for out-of-the ordinary honeymoons and diving vacations are becoming increasingly more popular and Harbour Village Beach Club is becoming a destination of choice for discriminating couples.

Miami, FL (PRWEB) May 18, 2006 -- May starts the wedding season and that means the hottest time of the year for honeymoon travel. As many couples plan their honeymoons, however, they are looking for unique destinations that reflect who they are and what they enjoy.

“We don’t want to go to the same place all of our friends went to. We want something special and different,” Jeannette Alvarez, 26 New York, NY explains.

Alvarez echoes the thoughts of many honeymooners looking for a unique destination and one of the most popular has become diving vacations like Bonaire. “After taking the plunge figuratively, they want to take the plunge literally,” Jessica Gonzalez, Harbour Beach Club, explains.

Harbour Village Beach Club, voted “Bonaire’s Leading Hotel”, World Travel Awards, has seen an increase in couples booking honeymoons. “It really is the perfect place for a honeymoon. There is a special intimacy and tranquility at Harbour Village and you can design your vacation to be as adventurous or non-adventurous as you wish. Design a week of diving, snorkeling, windsurfing and mountain biking or just relax on the beach and be pampered at the Spa.

Beautiful weather and beaches year-round, the world’s best diving just steps from your suite, personalized service and everything you could hope for in a vacation without a 10-hour plane ride,” Gonzalez explains.

As the honeymoon season heats up and couples look for unique destinations for their honeymoon, Bonaire is becoming a destination of choice, as is Bonaire’s crowning jewel the Harbour Village Beach Club.
