

Harbour Village Beach Club Proud to Announce its Acceptance into Small Luxury Hotels of the World Collection

Harbour Village Beach Club announces that the Bonaire vacation resort was accepted into Small Luxury Hotels of the World, an unrivaled collection of over 400 independent hotels in more than 60 countries.

Miami, FL (PRWeb) April 17, 2007 -- Harbour Village Beach Club announces today its acceptance into the Small Luxury Hotels of the World collection. Small Luxury Hotels of the World (SLH), voted the number one Luxury Hotel Brand in exclusivity by wealthy consumers, applies rigorous quality control standards to membership to maintain the hallmark of excellence for which SLH has become internationally recognized. With luxury hotels superbly located in more than 60 countries around the world, travelers are guaranteed variety, quality service and satisfaction wherever they go.

Every hotel in the collection is carefully selected for their style and sophistication. In the 2006 "Luxury Brand Status Index Survey", the independent researchers at the New York based Luxury Institute, found Small Luxury Hotels of the World to be one of the top rated hotel brands overall and the highest scoring brand in the categories of Exclusivity, Price, Worthiness and Willingness of Wealthy Consumers to Provide Referrals. Placing third overall in the Luxury Brand Status Index just behind Ritz Carlton and Peninsula, Small Luxury Hotels of the World tied with Four Seasons and edged out such well-known brands as Mandarin Oriental, St. Regis and Leading Hotels of the World.

Small Luxury Hotels of the World has also embraced environmental responsibility as a pre-requisite for acceptance, and has committed to embracing the principles of responsible tourism.

"Having our luxury hotel in Bonaire recognized within this prestigious collection of resorts is a true honor," states Oscar Haack, General Manager of Harbour Village Beach Club. "The Harbour Village Beach Club has worked hard to be the Bonaire vacation destination of choice. We are truly proud of our first rate accommodations, services and amenities for all types of guests. To be alongside some of the most luxurious and acclaimed resorts and hotels around the world cements the effort we've put forth to create a truly special Bonaire vacation experience," Haack concludes.
